Stuart Rossiter Memorial Lecture.

The 2012 lecture was given on 2nd November, by Hugh Feldman. Entitled “Researching Postal History – the thrills and frustrations” it certainly lived up to the billing. Hugh has spent weeks in Archives in the USA, and started his scanning of marks with a hand held scanner, which was very difficult to use. His achievements with his publications and many Gold medals were among the Thrills. We thank Hugh for a thoroughly enjoyable and entertaining talk.

His handout and part of his extensive Power Point presentation are now on the website www.rossitertrust.com
