

The Rossiter News

The e-newsletter of the Stuart Rossiter Trust

No.14 July-August 2012

Indonesia 2012 Exhibition at Jakarta

Congratulations to Geoff Lewis of Australia on his large Gold for his display of 'New Orleans Postal History – Stampless mail'

Geoff told us he found 'The Postal History of Spanish New Orleans' by Yamil H. Kouri, Jr very useful for his exhibit, so it is the Book of the Month.

Congratulations also to Richard Wheatley and Robin Pizer, Trustees of the Stuart Rossiter Trust, on their medals at Jakarta. Richard won a Gold and a Large Vermeil, Robin a Large Vermeil and a Vermeil.

This e-newsletter has been delayed by the London Olympics, and a major publication for the Malaya Study Group both of which have pre-occupied the editor.

Forthcoming Philatelic events

Autumn Stampex 26th - 29th September, at Business Design Centre Islington.

The Trust will be at Leeds Stamp Fair at Pudsey Civic Hall 16/17 November, more about that nearer the date.

Olympex at the British Library till 9th September "The International Olympic Committee and the British Library present this visually striking exhibition telling the fascinating story of the past and present of the Olympic Games through the medium of postage stamps and related memorabilia".

Free in the Entrance Hall of the British Library, Euston Rd London.

Book of the Month

A comprehensive study of the mail system and written communications in New Orleans during the Spanish period (1763-1804). It includes the inner workings of the mail system, postal markings, rates, ships, and covers.

This represents the most detailed and complete analysis of the finances of any Spanish colonial postal administration.

The mail carried privately and by the postal systems of England, France, and the United States is also covered, as well as the transition to the U.S. postal administration.
