Book of the Month

The Free French in London 1940 - 1945
By Peter A. Baker

A review of the postal history of the Free French & associated London based organisations.

Based on the Author's extensive research this work explores a fascinating but little known aspect of WWII.

It covers censor marks, cachets resealing tapes or labels and postmarks, relating to the Free French Army, Navy, Air Force, and the Courier Service. Liberation and National Committees, and under cover addresses.
Highly recommended to all who are interested in WWII, or censorship or British or French Postal History.

A4 softback, 64 pages, copiously illustrated in colour.

Available from www.rossitertrust.com £9.50
