

The Anglo-French Maritime Moveable Box

by Doug McGill

Doug McGill records his research into the maritime Moveable Box concept arising from the 1843 and 1857 Anglo-French Postal Conventions. Written as a history, this book explores its usage over almost 100 years in British, French and Mediterranean ports, and particularly in the Channel Islands, exploring new discoveries and including detailed listings of the markings and their usages.

Published by the Stuart Rossiter Trust, 2026.

135 pages, A4 Hardback, Price £25.

Order from the Trust at www.rossitertrust.com